Re: Michael RUDKO, 2 March 1917

Dear _____

The above named is an employee of the United Ukrainian American Relief Committee in Berlin, under contract to the Escapee Program. He is listed by the CIC in a report of February 1949 having been engaged in Communist Party activities in Wursburg.

Prior to his employment with the United Ukrainian American Relief Committee, he was employed in Munich with the Labor Assessment Unit of the Headquarters Munich District. He was once denied an InterZonal Pass by the Combined Travel Board and then in September of last year the pass was issued allowing him to travel to Berlin.

We would appreciate your checking your records to determine whether there is any information of any kind which might be of interest to this organization.

Sincerely yours,

James E. Crosby
